

EXECUTIVE LEADERSHIP

Albert Roberson LL.B., LL.M.

— Founder, CEO & Chairman of the Board

Albert Roberson is the Founder and Chief Executive Officer of Fractional Coordinator, where he leads the firm's strategy, operations, and civil rights practice. He also serves as Chairman of the Board, guiding the firm's long-term governance and growth.

Albert advises organizations at the intersection of compliance, governance, and organizational risk, with a practice that spans Title VI, Title VII, Title IX, the Americans with Disabilities Act, Section 504, and enterprise compliance. His work emphasizes building sustainable institutional infrastructure rather than reactive processes, helping leaders move from one-off responses to systems that endure.

He draws on more than a decade of coordinator experience across three institutions and executive leadership overseeing complex civil rights and compliance programs serving tens of thousands of students and employees. That frontline perspective shapes how he helps organizations strengthen accountability, improve decision-making, and reduce risk.

Albert has held senior leadership roles on both public and private college and university campuses, including institutions with populations of more than 20,000 students and employees. That firsthand experience navigating compliance at scale informs how he guides organizations on Title IX coordination, mandatory reporting, supportive measures, and the evolving post-vacatur regulatory landscape.
